Woes of the Rich.
"It must be nice to have a lady's maid." "Yes, but it's annoying the days the cook doesn't come and you have to cook for the lady's maid," said the other lady with a sigh.—Louisville

LEISURE WOMEN HARD AT WORK

Y. W. C. A. Spends $5,000,000 on Girls the First Year of War.

"Stand behind the country's girlhood." This is the slogan of the most remarkable group of women ever brought together for work in a common cause.

When the War Work Council of the National Y. W. C. A. was organized last June it mobilized many of the best known women in this country, among them Mrs. Thomas Marshall, wife of the Vice President, and wives of several members of the President's cabinet—Mrs. Robert Lansing, Mrs.
Newton D. Baker and Mrs. Josephus Daniels. Mrs. Henry P. Davidson, wife of the head of the American Red Cross, is treasurer.

Other members of the council are:
Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Jr.; Mrs.
Dave Henry Morris, granddaughter of Commodore Vanderbilt; Mrs. John R.
Mott, wife of the international secretary of the Y. M. C. A.; Mrs. Robert Speer, Mrs. Henry Emerson Fordick, Mrs. William Fellows Morgan, Dr.
Katherine Bement Davis, Mrs. Robert Coleman Du Pont, Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker, and many others equally prominent.

In this first year of its work, the War Work Council has expended $5,000,000 on work for women and girls, both here and in Europe—whenever war conditions have menaced their physical or moral safety.

DRESS YOUR PART, SAY BUSINESS WOMEN

Furs in broiling weather and gauze stockings and slippers in midwinter will get a setback at the Business Women's exhibit of business clothes in New York city, scheduled for the early summer.

What to wear and how to wear it is one of the first questions which the new National Business Women's Committee is taking up. A standard in dress for business is the object.

When a hundred delegates from twenty-five states met at the National Board building of the Young Women's Christian Association in New York City, in May it was to represent the 9,000,000 business women of this country and mobilize them for patriotic work.

Better working conditions, equal pay for equal work, efficiency in the various activities into which women are going and the promotion of business opportunities were the object. This committee of twenty-five women, known as the National Business Women's Committee, is the connecting link between the business women's organizations of this country and the National Young Women's Christian Association, which has thrown all its machinery open to the movement. Miss Lena Madson Phillips, a lawyer from Kentucky, heads the movement.

ALL SORTS OF NEEDS MET BY HOSTESS HOUSE

Her brother's name among the list of killed in the evening paper—if only she could reach her other brother at the neighboring camp before he saw it.

For two hours and a half she tried vainly to reach him by telephone.
Then she thought of the Young Women's Christian Association Hostess House—why not try it?

"Tell him," she called over the wire to the operator, "that some one at home is very sick." In fifteen minutes her brother's voice came over the wire—he had run all the way from the barracks to the Hostess House upon receiving the message.

The Y. W. C. A. Hostess Houses at the training camps answer many needs besides the service to women relatives and friends of soldiers. Like all well conducted houses they are friends to everybody.

Forty-six of these houses are already open and twenty-four are building at army camps, aviation fields, naval stations and marine barracks.
Nine are for friends of colored troops.

MAIMED, BUT STILL GAY

"The gay little air which crippled men returned from the front all wear is the most pathetic thing that I have seen in France," writes a Young Woman's Christian Association war worker in Lyons.

"In spite of crutches and drawn faces they all look at you as you pass them on the street as though they would say, 'It's nothing to me that I have only one leg left to my name.'"

"Lyons has multitudes of wounded, exchanged prisoners, refugees and the most motley crew of million workers that any town can produce.

"In the great munition factories there are Chinese, Algerians, Moroccans and hosts of other races whose faces and clothes are so yellowed by the acids among which they work that their nationality is only a guess."

Great numbers of the workers are French refugee women. It is among these that the Young Women's Christian Association has opened social rooms which are these women's only chance of home life. Work of this kind has been established by the Young Women's Christian Association during the past year in a number of French cities.

Where Skill Counts.

The theory and practice of agriculture largely rests on the fact that plants can be greatly modified by the condition under which they grow, after being established in the soil. Therein is shown the skill of the cultivator.
